It is clear that the current Proposed Final Judgement does in no way address the anti-trust allegations/findings of previous courts. Worse still, there seems to be no mechanism in place for ensuring 1) that such behaviour is corrected in the future and 2) that the consumer is protected from the lack of choice provided by a Microsoft Monopoly. I would urge you to protect the public consumer as well as other IT companies that are doomed to failure because of the monopolistic conduct of Microsoft.
